AIM

Draw My Face is the game of teeny tiny masterpieces! Race to draw the best - or funniest - portraits of friends and family. The catch? You have just 60 seconds and a bunch of challenge cards to mix things up. The portrait that gets the most love at the end is declared the winning masterpiece and admired by all!

SET UP

Split the challenge cards into their six categories: Hidden talents, Artistic style, Big changes, What am I made of?, Who am I?, and Really weird! Put them down where everyone can reach. Next, give everyone a pencil and a few teeny-tiny pieces of paper. Finally, set a one-minute timer on your phone or stopwatch... ideally, one that beeps!

HOW TO PLAY

You all take turns being the model. Since you're reading this, you can be the model first! Choose TWO different category piles, and take the top card from BOTH. Look at the two challenges – and decide which one to use.

Everyone else is an artist. They have just ONE MINUTE to draw the model, as described on the chosen challenge card. For example, 'Draw me with your weaker hand', 'Draw me as a robot' or 'Draw me made out of circles'.

When the time is up, all the artists put their portraits in front of the model... Remember, that's you in this first round. The model must find something nice to say about each one - this could be easy or a bit of a challenge!

Ceremoniously lay out all the portraits in a gallery area (if you have enough space). It's then the next person's turn to be the model.

WINNING

When everyone has been the model TWICE, it's time to choose your favourite portraits! Give every player THREE star tokens – or just two if you're playing with more than six people.

Now put your star tokens on your three favourite portraits...

These can be portraits of anyone, but they can't be pictures you drew. After everyone's voted, the portrait with the most stars WINS and is declared a priceless artwork!

DRAW?

In the event of a tie, you – as reader of the rules – get to pick the winner. Congratulate the artist, then ceremoniously stick the winning masterpiece on your fridge. Be sure to take a photo and share it with us on Instagram @gamelygames - we'll be sending out prizes to our favourites!
